

DIGITAL PRACTICE PLANNER

We have responsibilities, both in our professional and personal lives. As we have discussed before, being prepared is a responsibility. We need to keep our "to do list" in front of us and have a place to record Thoughts. I find a Note section helps me record events that I can reference often.

Finding the perfect planner can be quite the challenge! I have used many different types, literally everything from the standard yellow legal pad to the "hourly recording" types, the "to do list" kind and the "note" pages.

Before investing in the Next Best Thing we thought why not explore your needs with a simple yet, digital and printable version of a practice planner.

Feel free to download and practice for 30 days. Remember to be consistent, there are so many advantages to planning, goals, and being organized.
